Highly Dangerous

Highly dangerous chemicals present exceptional risks due to flammability or reactivity. At the University of Washington, "Highly Dangerous" chemicals are those with an NFPA classification of “4” for flammability or an NFPA classification of “4” or “3” for reactivity.